Policy Regarding Dental Insurance

Our professional treatment is rendered to you not the insurance company. You are responsible to CENTRAL DENTISTRY for the obligation of payment of treatment.

To serve and assist you in utilizing your dental insurance, this office accepts assignment of your benefits. However, if you have any questions about the amount the plan will pay or the treatments your plan will cover, you should refer these questions to your employer or insurance company. We are not responsible for determining what those benefits are to be.

We will do our best to see that you receive your full benefits within the structure of your particular dental plan. However, ultimate responsibility for payment is yours and Patient's Co-Pay is due at the time of treatment.

Thank you

This notice describes how health information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information.

Federal and state law requires us to maintain the privacy of your health information. The law also requires us to give you this notice about our privacy practice, our legal duties and your rights concerning your health information.

We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this notice at any time, provided such applicable law permits the changes. You may request a copy of our notice.

When do we use and disclose of health information?

We use and disclose your health information for treatment, payment, and health care operations.

Treatment: We use your health information for treatment or disclose it to a dentist, physician or other health care provider providing treatment to you.

Payment: We may use and disclose your health information to obtain payment for services we provide to you.

Health Care Operations: We may disclose your health information to another health care provider or organization that has a relationship with you to support some of their healthcare operations.

Family /Friends: We may disclose your health information to a family member, friend or other person to the extent necessary to help with your health care or with payment for your health care.

If you are not present or in an emergency, we will disclose your medical information based on our professional judgment of whether the disclosure would be in your best interest. We may use our professional judgment and experience with common practice to make reasonable inferences of your best interest in allowing a person to pick up prescriptions, medical supplies, x-rays, or other similar forms of health information and notifying your location and general condition.

Appointment Reminders: We may use or disclose your health information to provide you with appointment reminders (such as voicemail messages, postcards, or letters.)

Public Benefit: We may use or disclose your health information as authorized by law for the purposes deemed to be in the public interest or benefit.

You may give us written authorization to use or disclose your health information to anyone for any purpose except those authorized by law. Your authorization and revocation must be done in writing.

What are patient's rights?

Access: You have the right to get copies of your health information with limited exceptions. You must make a request in writing to obtain access to your health information and if you request copies, we will charge you a reasonable cost-based fee for copies and staff time.

Restriction: You have the right to request that we place additional restrictions on our use or disclosure of your health information. We are not required to agree to those restrictions, but if we do, we will abide by our agreement (except emergency). The agreement must be made in writing and signed by an authorized person.

If you have questions or concerns, please contact our office.
